Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus calls us to live in intentional and faithful discipleship.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls his first disciples by name. Their response is immediate and total - they leave everything behind and accept his invitation. We gather today to celebrate this Eucharist because we, too, have been called to follow Christ in intentional and faithful discipleship. Today we ponder that call and renew our response.

Sunday Mass ~ 9:00 a.m.

Holy Days: Consult bulletin or call the office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation: By Appointment.

Sacrament of Marriage: Pre-Cana is a Diocesan Requirement. Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance.

Baptism: Please call the office to make arrangements.

Catechumenate: Adults interested in joining the Roman Catholic Church, please call the office.

New members are welcome at Immaculate Conception/St. Bridget's Church. For more information on how to join the parish, please call the parish office at 235-3340 ext. 116.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH BOOK DISCUSSION

In celebration of Black History Month, we invite you to join us for an engaging Zoom book discussion of Michael R. Heinlein's book Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood.

This is the first book to explore the lives of the six Black Catholics from the United States whose causes are under formal consideration by the Catholic Church for canonization.

We hope you will join us for this meaningful conversation.

Please contact the Black Catholic Coalition of Rochester (BCCR) at blackcatholiccoalition@gmail.com for additional information.

Living Faith

Divine Illumination

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone.

Isaiah 9:1

If we're accustomed to having reliable access to artificial light, we may never have experienced total darkness. Some years ago, in pre-cell-phone days, I was staying by myself in a tiny cabin in a dense forest in Maine when I lost electricity following a hurricane. Once evening blanketed the area, I was relieved at the difference even the flickering flame of a small candle made in piercing the night and keeping me company.

Perhaps many of us have experienced a different kind of walking in darkness at times in our lives. Lingering pain and illness, devastating loss, a sense of failure, chronic worry—all of these and more may leave us feeling that we live in the land of gloom. Yet, no matter what might be unfolding in our lives, the Holy One, the source of light, accompanies us always. We are never left alone in the dark.

Sr. Chris Koellhoffer, I.H.M.
